Austin, Texas (March 12, 2007) – The Bangladeshi community in the Greater Austin area is pleased to announce the election of the first Board of Directors of the Bangladesh Association of Greater Austin (BAGA). BAGA is the official representative body for the Bangladeshi community in the Greater Austin area.

On January 27, 2007, about 400 members participated in an election to elect an eleven member Board of Directors. The Board is in charge of promoting Bangladeshi culture, tradition, heritage and organizing social, cultural and charitable events. As a sole representative body for the Bangladeshi community in the Greater Austin area the Board will represent its members to any local, state or federal authority.

BAGA Board of Directors is committed to work closely with other Bangladeshi Associations in the State of Texas and in other states of the United States to promote Bangladeshi culture and organize joint events.

BAGA Board of Directors is committed to assist elected city and state officials in serving the Greater Austin community, and seeks cooperation from the elected officials of the Greater Austin area in upholding the interests of the ever growing Bangladeshi community.
